

Cool Delight Desserts Ltd scoops new premises

- Lancashire ice-cream and frozen dessert business has acquired new premises in Ramsbottom
- The Royal Bank of Scotland has provided funding to assist the purchase and future relocation of the business

Significant growth has led Cool Delight Desserts to acquire new premises at Carr Bank Lodge in the centre of Ramsbottom, Lancashire with a funding package provided by the Royal Bank of Scotland.

Established in 2005, Cool Delight Desserts Ltd is a specialist supplier of ice cream and frozen dessert products, to the Education & Healthcare (Public Sector) of the UK foodservice market. The company has enjoyed rapid growth this year with its turnover increasing to £10million.

Cool Delight Desserts currently trade their head office from rented premises in Cuba Business Park on Bolton Road North in Ramsbottom. Refurbishment work is currently underway at the new premises and Cool Delight Desserts hope to complete the move later in 2017. They currently employ eight people.

Cool Delight Desserts Ltd's products are manufactured at two main production sites, in the UK and Belgium. Most of their products have a nut-free status (manufactured in a nut-free environment) and are also low in fat and sugar, free from hydrogenated fats and free from contentious additives that should be avoided by children / patients. In addition, the majority of their cold-dessert products are suitable for vegetarian and coeliac patients.

Stephen Binns, Director at Cool Delight Desserts Ltd said: "Our turnover has increased substantially over the last year and we are delighted to be in a position to invest in our own premises. We are looking forward to moving to the Carr Bank Lodge site and growing the business further. As our business expands, we are striving to bring into our range, dessert products which are suitable for the Independent "profit sector" in addition to our core products for the Public Sector.

"The backing we have received from the Royal Bank of Scotland has been very helpful with the completion of the purchase. We have been very happy with the support from Gavin Elmes and his team."

Gavin Elmes, Senior Relationship Manager at the Royal Bank of Scotland said: "Cool Delight Desserts Ltd is a very impressive local business and one we are delighted to assist.
